Our School Positive Behaviour Plan emphasises three rules:

Be Safe, Be Respectful, Be a Learner.

The objectives of our bullying policy are:

- *Prevention- to actively counter bullying at the school, to provide strategies to resolve conflict and respect differences and promote mental health
- *Intervention-to raise awareness among staff, students and parents about bullying, to create a school environment where all students, staff and parents feel safe and welcome and to create a climate where it is okay to talk about bullying and ask for help.

Parent, student and teacher satisfaction with the school

All evidence gathered about parents, student and teacher satisfaction indicates very high levels of satisfaction with the school. Surveys involving parental input into school decisions indicate strong involvement and satisfaction with the standards and goals of the school. Anecdotal evidence of student and teacher satisfaction also indicate approval of the way the school operates and the values it espouses. Feedback through interviews, discussions and parent evenings show ongoing support for the school and parental, students and staff involvement in social, liturgical and educational practices is very high.

Parent involvement in their child's education

Parents and caregivers are actively encouraged to be involved in their child's education. Parental involvement in organisations such as the Parents and Friends Association and the school fete is very high. Parents support all school functions and initiatives and offer substantial monetary support to the many charitable activities undertaken by the school. Parental support for the tuckshop, uniform shop, working bees and the other school activities is very healthy.

Parents have many opportunities to be directly involved with their child's education. Reading groups, Prep help, sports groups and music groups all benefit from the extensive support of parents. ## Policy and practice to manage student attendance

Brisbane Catholic Education uses a system called eMinerva. Each day teachers mark the roll twice (at 8.30am and 2.30pm) recording students present and those absent.

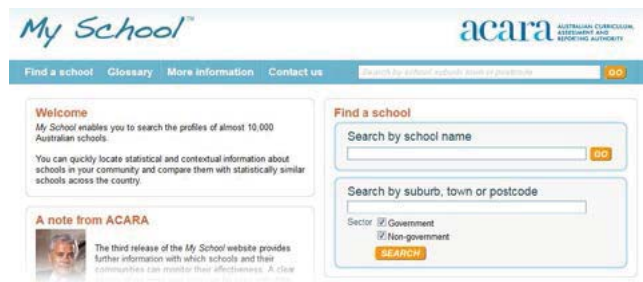

Students who arrive late or leave early are to be signed in by parents at the office. Students are then given a slip to give to the teacher when they enter the room. If parents are picking their child up early they are to come to the office, sign out their child and wait for their child to come to the office area. All late and early notices are recorded on eMinerva (roll system) by the school secretary.

Students who take holidays during term time are required to have written permission by parents. These notifications will then be filed as part of our records. Those leaving for more than two weeks are to fill out an official office form, signed by the parent, signed by the teacher and principal and an indication of what work will be completed. These forms are also kept on file.
